I am one of the local homeowners blessed by the immeasurable goodness and generosity of the board, staff, volunteers and multitudes of donors behind the success of Rebuilding Together Tulsa and my heart is overwhelmed with humbled thanksgiving!

My project was sponsored, organized and hands-on supervised by my heroic "dragon slayers," Brad and Beth Colvard, with the able assistance of team leader Tascha Rinehart of Countrywide Home Loans. I so wish I could name every organization and person who gave so passionately not only to my needs, but to the other homeowners who were assisted all over town.

Among them, however, I must additionally honor my personal team of Tulsa Community College's John Hall and 10 occupational therapy students who were joined by District 9 City Councilor Susan Neal and her son, all of whom gave of themselves above and beyond the call of duty, getting downright wet and dirty in the process. Special thanks also to A-Best Roofing, Sherwin-Williams and Richard and Heinz Steves of Total Lawn and Landscape Services (who just happened to be in the neighborhood and volunteered their services on the spot).

I shall be forever grateful for Rebuilding Together Tulsa's help and heartily encourage Tulsans to get behind this worthy project. One never knows when we might personally find ourselves in unexpected need of such a vital community endeavor. May God reward you all richly for being such a gigantic answer to prayer!
